

Sam C. Steele, CFC
Monroe County Tax Collector
P.O. Box 1129, Key West, FL 33041-1129
www.monroetaxcollector.com

Pursuant to Executive Orders 22-218 and 22-219, waiving certain fees for customers who were directly impacted by adverse weather conditions of Hurricane Ian. The Emergency Order will currently expire on October 23, 2022.

I, (name) _____, certify that I was directly impacted by the adverse weather conditions of Hurricane Ian.

The impact was a direct cause of needing a replacement (vehicle/vessel registration, title, driver license, etc.) _____

which was not lost/damaged due to any other reason.

UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY, I VERIFY THAT THE FACTS I HAVE STATED ARE TRUE. NO FRAUD INTENDED.

Signature of Owner/Registrant

Driver License/ID Number

Printed Name of Owner/Registrant

Date

Below is a list of fees eligible for waiver and deferral of administrative actions due to the Executive and Emergency orders mentioned above:

- Waive fees due to the direct impact of Hurricane Ian’s adverse weather conditions for:
 - Duplicate or replacement vessel registration, and title certificates
 - Vehicle license plates, validation stickers, vehicle registration and title certificates
 - Handicapped parking permits
 - Replacement driver licenses and identification cards
 - Late fees

For TC Personnel:

Please add “EO 22-218” to the comments/remarks field when completing the transaction.